Welcome to Charleston Hub — your online gateway to The Charleston Library Conference, Against the Grain, blog posts, daily news, job updates, and more.

It all started with the Charleston Conference, an informal annual gathering of librarians, publishers, electronic resource managers, consultants, and vendors of library materials in Charleston, SC, in November, to discuss issues of importance to them all. Against the Grain was born in 1989 as a way for conference attendees to keep in touch more often than once a year. The Charleston Library Conference is designed to be a collegial gathering of individuals from different areas who discuss the same issues in a non-threatening, friendly, and highly informal environment. Presidents of companies discuss and debate with library directors, acquisitions librarians, reference librarians, serials librarians, web development librarians, systems and electronic resources librarians, collection development librarians, and many, many others. Begun in 1980, the Charleston Conference has grown from 20 participants in the first year to thousands in 2022. We also had cooperative programs, sponsorship participation, and/or sessions hosted in 2023 at the Frankfurt Book Fair, the Society for Scholarly Publishing (SSP) annual meeting, and the STM Conference, with more planned for the future.

Our resources include Against the Grain (an eJournal publication as of 2022) began publishing in 1989 and has expanded its online offerings to include:

- ATG Standalone eBlasts
- The ATG Career Center
- The ATG Job Bank
- Charleston Briefings
- Charleston Conference Proceedings
- ATG Broadcast eNewsletters
- ATG Podcasts
- Charleston Webcasts
- Charleston Virtual Events
- Charleston Voices
The Charleston Hub unifies content, search, and registration from Against the Grain and the Charleston Library Conference for one-stop access to industry news, thought leadership, and conference details and proceedings. Our goal is to bring together librarians, vendors, publishers and associated members of the information chain to discuss areas of common interest and concern.

Our unified site allows visitors to more easily discover complementary content to deepen engagement, while also consolidating traffic for greater advertising exposure. Site visitors will continue to enjoy a sought-after and robust content library including daily industry updates, full-text Against the Grain eJournal issues, job openings, conference announcements, as well as highly popular webcasts and the “If Rumors Were Horses” column by Katina Strauch, Editor Emerita.

Key Website Stats from January 2023 - December 2023

ATG the Podcast

Our ATG Podcast Episodes air on Mondays and feature new interviews and Charleston Library Conference content. You can view a list of recent podcasts HERE. Brief descriptions for Podcast options are noted below. Full details are located HERE.

30 second commercial spot for $250 if you provide a finished mp3 audio file to us — or $350 if you provide the script and a Charleston Conference or Against the Grain executive staff member records your message.

Sponsorship support of a regularly scheduled episode is $500 which includes a message from our staff at the beginning and end of the content thanking you.

Sponsor a podcast episode for $800 in which you provide the content and speakers for the entire episode. Charleston Conference/ATG staff can be included to conduct interviews or to do the intros/outs if desired. Script and content must be reviewed and approved by ATG prior to recording.

Webcast Support Opportunities

We are excited to offer a new, year-round opportunity to engage the audience and community surrounding our annual conference event. We have hosted a successful series of webcasts on topics such as marketing in the library, misinformation, end of year spending, and more. Registration is free; these are consistently well attended, with very positive feedback received. Videos of previously recorded webcasts are available HERE. Two levels of sponsorship are available — brief descriptions are noted below. You can also read or download our brochure with all the details HERE.

1) Charleston Conference Webcasts — monthly sessions presented by invited speakers with the purpose of providing educational opportunities on topics of interest for librarians, publishers, and vendors. 60-minute sessions which include audience engagement, Q&A, attendee chat, and poll questions. Contact Caroline Goldsmith for pricing and availability. <caroline@charlestonlibraryconference.com>

2) Charleston Conference Vendor Information Webcasts — these sessions are paid opportunities for a publisher or vendor to host a webcast which features a particular product or resource, or to present a topic that would be of interest to the Charleston Library Conference audience. All proposals will be reviewed by the conference planning group. Cost is $2,500 per webcast.
About Against the Grain

Against the Grain (ISSN: 1043-2094) is your key to the latest news about libraries, publishers, vendors, and all players in the scholarly communication chain. Our goal is to link us all by reporting on the issues, literature, and people that impact the world of scholarly information. Against the Grain was published in print from March 1989 through January 2021 and became an eJournal in 2022. We have evolved beyond print and have had a website for several years now. ATG will continue to publish timely information online every day.

In 2024, Against the Grain will return to publishing five issues a year—February, April, June, September, and November. As an eJournal, we can offer interactive ads to our advertisers. The eJournal will be distributed in PDF to ATG subscribers, Charleston Library Conference attendees, and registered members on the Charleston Hub.

Individual subscriptions to ATG are available for $75 per year with Institutional subscriptions now available for $195 per year. Subscribers will have access to the Charleston Hub and Against the Grain. For information on how to subscribe, visit: www.charleston-hub.com/membership-options/.

ATG Special Reports — (Started in 2022)

Against the Grain is now publishing Special Reports on timely topics. These will be in addition to our eJournal issues and will be published on an ad hoc basis. If you’d like to provide content for a Special Report please reach out to Caroline Goldsmith <caroline@charlestonlibraryconference.com> or Leah Hinds <leah@charlestonlibraryconference.com> for more details.

General Policy

All advertising is subject to the publisher’s approval. The advertiser and the advertising agency assume liability for all content of advertisements and any claims against the publisher as the result of the advertisement.

In every issue of ATG we will feature four to six articles on a specific topic, include interviews with prominent people in the industry, and provide comments from luminaries on a range of subjects. There are op ed submissions, legally speaking articles, reviews of books and reference titles, reports of meetings (including the Charleston Library Conference, the Fiesole Retreats and others), and many individual articles by our regular columnists. Our readers value ATG as a timely and informative resource.
Against the Grain Sponsored Issues

Now accepting reservations for 2025 issues. Advertisers can now Sponsor an eJournal issue of ATG. Sponsors can choose from a list of suggested topics or submit a topic of their own for approval. Sponsors will then submit four to six articles (1000-1800 words each) on the approved topic, plus one interview article (optional, 1000-1800 words), and artwork for a full page color ad. Price to sponsor an ATG eJournal issue is $4,000.

Current list of Suggested Topics
